EASLEY APPOINTS CLEGG TO PEST CONTROL COMMITTEE

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Phillip G. Clegg of Durham to the North Carolina Structural Pest Control Committee.

Clegg has been the president of Clegg's Termite and Pest Control, Inc. since 1970. There are 13 offices serving North Carolina. He has served as the vice president of the North Carolina Pest Control Association from 1975-1976 and president from 1976-1978. From 1985-1987, he was president of the National Pest Control Association. Clegg is a member of the board of directors for Centura Bank and for the CPS Insurance Group. He attended East Carolina University from 1960-1962 and received his bachelor's degree from North Carolina State University in 1964.

The Structural Pest Control Association approves applications for pest control licenses. It is responsible for adopting new or amending old legislation regarding rules and regulations within the industry and for revoking pest control licenses when necessary. There are nine members, and the Governor appoints three members. Each member serves a four-year term.
